ETIQUETTE TAUGHT HERE.

A Book Agent Who Was Not Adapted to His Part.

"Madam," he began, as the door opened, "I am selling a new book on Etiquette and Deportment."

"Oh, you are!" she responded.
"Go down there and clean the mud off your feet."

"Yes'm. As I was saying, madam, I am sell—"

"Take off your hat! Never address a strange lady at her door without removing your hat."

"Yes'm. Now, then, as I was saying—"

"Take your hands out of your pockets! No gentleman ever carries his hands there."

"Yes'm. Now, ma'am, this work on 'Eti—'"

"Throw away your pipe! If a gentleman uses tobacco he is careful not to disgust others by the habit."

"Yes'm. Now, ma'am, in calling your attention to this valuable—"

"Wait. Put that dirty handkerchief out of sight, and use less grease on your hair in the future. Now you look a bit decent. You have a book on 'Etiquette and Deportment?'"

Very well, I don't want it. I am only the servant girl. Go up the steps to the front door and talk with the lady of the house. She called me a downright, outright, no-doubt-about-it idiot this morning, and I think the book you're selling is just what she requires."—London Answers.

THE RETORT COURTEOUS.

Given by a Lively Girl to Her Most Sedate Companion.

In one of the suburban settlements along the line of Connecticut avenue extended live two young girls about 15 years old. One of the pair, according to the Washington Star, is the most unrestrained tomboy in the District of Columbia. The other is as prim and precise as the proverbial New England school teacher. Their differing opinions on various subjects occasion most vigorous discussions now and then, but the quietest put on the strictures of the overcast little girl while the two were walking down to the car line one afternoon this week caps the climax.
They were just in sight of the little house where all the young matrons of the village were waiting in hard-some gowns and fine headgear to go into town. An empty hay wagon rumbled along the drive. In an instant the hoyden, regardless of a new walking suit of Oxford gray, had slipped up behind and thrown herself across the long pole that stuck out behind. "Jest, for goodness' sake, don't do that! Everybody will see you. Do, please, come over here on the sidewalk." The young tomboy caught a firmer hold on the running gear, gave her hands a push that sat her astride of the pole and then called back: "Well, I guess you needn't be stuck up and puttin' on airs just because you've got powder on your face."

"Oh, you are!" she responded.
off your feet."

VOTING CONTEST.

The Most Popular Lady In Christian County to Be Determined By Ballot.

The Winner Will Be Awarded a Set of Furniture worth $110.

A VOTING contest was begun August 29, for four months, to determine by popular vote the most popular lady in Christian County. To the lady receiving the highest number of votes, we will present an elegant set of bedroom furniture, now on exhibition at Pyle & Ganett.

It is of quartered oak, of the finest make and latest style, and is worth $110. The contest will close at 12 o'clock, noon, Monday, December 29, 1902. The plan will be as follows:

Every subscriber to the Kentuckian who pays back dues or cash in advance will be entitled to cast one vote for each five cents paid. That is to say, a subscriber who pays $2.00 will have 40 votes, one who pays $1.00 will have 20 votes and so on for any amount large or small. In every paper published there will be a coupon and these coupons when cut out and brought or sent to the office will represent each one vote. A subscriber will also have the privilege of gathering up coupons clipped by friends from their papers and voting them one at a time, or by the hundred if preferred. One will also have the privilege of buying papers at the office at five cents each and voting the coupons cut from them.

The coupon ballots will be deposited in a ballot box with two keys. One of these keys will be held by County Judge W. T.
Fowler and the other by Mayor Jouett Henry. The box will be opened not oftener than once a week, all ballots then in it taken out, counted and certified to, sealed up in an envelope and replaced in the ballot box. The envelope will contain a statement of the votes in it, so that its contents will not need to be counted again until the official count at the close of the contest.

The last week of the contest the ballots may be deposited without showing them, so that the close of the contest may be secret and exciting to the end.
